CANAL AND RAIL ROAD BILL.

On Monday the Governor of this State returned to the House of Representatives the Canal and Rail Road Bill, with his objections. The reason assigned in his message for declining to approve the Bill is, that the amount of the appropriation is greater than, in his opinion, security demands, and he therefore proposes a reduction in the loan of the present year to two millions two hundred thousand dollars.

The Bill has since been taken up and acted upon, and having obtained the constitutional majority, has, of course, become a law without the signature of the Governor.

LITERARY CASKET.

A weekly journal with this title has recently been issued at Yellow Springs, in this State. We notice it for the purpose of requesting our agents and correspondents to be particular in designating our monthly publication as the Philadelphia Casket, to prevent any mistake from happening.

THE DRAMA.

Messrs. Wallack and Hamblin continue to perform together at Chestnut street. They have only drawn tolerable houses.

The Corps de Ballet is still engaged at this establishment.

The Managers are making an effort to revive the opera. Der Freischütz has been brought out with no assistance but the regular company, and we are pleased to add, with creditable success.

At Arch street, Miss Kelly has concluded her engagement.

Mr. H. Rbert, many years ago known in this city, as an actor of considerable merit, has been added to the regular company at this House.

Mrs. Talbot is pretty and has talent.

Several new pieces are announced as being in active preparation.

A grand Fancy Ball is advertised for next Thursday evening, at Walnut street Theatre.

The preparations for this event are of great splendor.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

LOUIS M-LANE, of Delaware, to be Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Great Britain, place of James Barbour, of Virginia.

AN EXCELLENT CHARACTER.

It gives us real pleasure to copy the following account of the recent session of the Legislature of the State of Ohio.

"The Legislature of Ohio adjourned on the 21st ult. after a session of about seventy days, during which 183 laws and 40 resolutions were passed. Amidst the excitement produced by the presidential contest, and the numerous bills and resolutions pending, it is remarkable that the Legislature, notwithstanding the small number of members, has been able to pass so many laws, and to do so with so much deliberation and wisdom."

ERRORS EXCEPTED.

The Alabama Telegraph, under the head of Mistakes Rectified, states that, "It having been shown to the satisfaction of the Legislature of Alabama, that sundry females of this State had committed mistakes, and married men at originally intended for them, (though it is said that matches are made in Heaven!) acts have been passed declaring such marriages void, and giving the parties an opportunity of correcting the errors of their youth."

About a fortnight since in Philadelphia, a man named Norton, alias Wilson, alias Hilson, was tried and convicted for forgery, and sentenced for eight years. He is one of a gang of thieves and convicts, who have been making a name for themselves in the courts of Sessions and in the State Prison; and whilst there he made a desperate attempt upon, and stabbed one of the keepers in several places, for which the keeper intended to have had him tried; but, from the interference of persons in the city, he was once more pardoned, and came out some time last summer, and again commenced his depredations by robbing stores, by means of false keys, &c. in company with Antonio, who was with part of the clothing from the store of Mr. De Forest. From here he escaped to Philadelphia, where he has been caught, and it is hoped, he may serve his time out.

Thomas Jones, who was taken up in February last with about $9,000 counterfeit $20 bills, of the Mechanics' Bank, New Haven, was yesterday brought to trial in the Court of Sessions and convicted. He brought $19,000 of this money from St. Armands, in Canada, where he had the Marble Manufacturing plate altered, and the bills prepared by two pardoned convicts, named Gleason and Dr. Stewart, as he says. $1,000 of it was handed by him to a person living in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, where in all probability it has been retailed. Jones has been convicted in this case, as before stated, of being a counterfeiter, and sentenced to the State Prison for seven years, for forgery, under the name of Edward Amer, alias John Smith, and sentenced for seven years, for forgery, under the name of Edward Amer, alias John Smith, and sentenced for seven years, for forgery, under the name of Edward Amer, alias John Smith.

The Chesapeake Canal bill passed the Senate on Tuesday, and requires only the signature of the Governor to become a law. The bill prohibits the construction of any work which would diminish the security for their performance, for its completion, for $200,000. The length of the canal from the head of the Susquehanna to the Chesapeake river at Elmina is 18 miles with a feeder of 13 1/2 miles with locks to be constructed with chambers of wood, and either supported by stone walls or diminished upon some other approved plan. —Allan Jones.

A duel was lately fought by a shop-keeper and another person in H—w, a village near New-York city. The parties were to fight at five paces; but in the trepidation of the moment, one went forward, and only three paces off, and his antagonist fell. He immediately exclaimed, "I am a murderer!" was secured, and handed over to the sheriff; but afterwards escaped, and has not since been heard of. The second was men of sense, and had left balls out of the question.

From the Brooklyn (L. I.) Star.

Improvement in Clocks.—Mr. Joseph Ives of this village is the inventor and patentee of a lever spring clock, which has passed the inspection of artists and mechanics with a high degree of approbation. The wheels are all of metal, the principal of which run on friction rollers, and exhibit an admirable nicety of finish and workmanship. To level springs carry the striking part as well as the time, and require winding only once in eight days. The whole is in a small compact form, light and portable, without the necessity of weights, and afforded at half the price of the old fashioned metal clocks. It is a highly valuable American invention, and will add much to the reputation, and we hope also to the fortune of the patentee.

WEST CHESTER, N. Y. CIRCUIT COURT.

At the April term, held last week at White-plains, the Hon. Judge Emott, presiding, Job Chapman, was arraigned and tried on an indictment for perjury. It appeared in evidence, that at the last October term of the Court, when called as a witness in a prosecution for damages for the sale of an unsound horse, Chapman, (who was said to be present at the time of sale,) gave his evidence in a manner not satisfactory to the prosecutor upon that trial; and for which he was arraigned at this term upon an indictment for perjury. Upon this trial, the testimony of the prosecutor upon the former trial, materially contradicted the evidence of Chapman at that trial, which testimony was also corroborated by the daughter of the witness on the present trial. The jury retired and brought in a verdict of guilty, against Chapman, and the Court adjourned him to the State Prison for three months.

Let this be a warning to witnesses not to disregard the oath, required of them, to disclose "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

SINGULAR INCIDENT.

We have been informed of the following incident, which occurred in the case of an individual. About four years since, Mr. Frederick Barre lost a pocket book near the turnpike gate in this town, containing upwards of 700 dollars in money; it was found by a man named Jacob Williams, who was in needy circumstances, but who honorably and unhesitatingly returned it to the owner. A few days since, Williams, whose circumstances are said to be not at all bettered during the last four years, but whose honesty seems still to overcome his need, picked up a pocket book a few miles from the place where he found the first mentioned one, which he carried into a public house, close by, where it was examined, and found to belong to the same Mr. Barre, and the same pocket book he had picked up four years ago, and contained $553, in bills. —Canastota Vindicator.

On Tuesday last, Mr. A. B. Murphy, merchant, of this village, was severely wounded by the discharge of a pistol, loaded with a bullet. The pistol, the lock of which was of curious construction, was in the hands of a person who did not know that it was loaded, and a brother present of Mr. M. requested to know how it was cocked; when in attempting to show him, the pistol accidentally discharged, and the ball was received by Mr. M. in his side, he standing but a few feet from the pistol. The wound is considered dangerous, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. —Le Roy Gazette.

In the last Galena Miner's Journal of the 7th of March, it is stated on the authority of a gentleman of the army, then at that place, that he had received a communication from Mr. Marsh, Indian Agent at Prairie du Chien, stating that he had information of a collection of Sioux Indians to the number of about 4,000, who it is said intend to descend the Mississippi this spring, on a visit to the Sac and Fox nations of Indians; but for what purpose is not yet known.—It is however understood that a good deal of discontent prevails among the North-Western tribes, perhaps in consequence of some misunderstanding between them and the whites.

ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

A few minutes before ten o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the extreme western part of the city, in a small shop owned by Mr. Condy, corner of Farm and Second streets. The wind, at this time, was blowing strongly from the West, and the destructive element spread with rapidity to the adjacent buildings, and threatened extensive devastation from its progress. After consuming 25 or 40 small wooden buildings, the fire crossed Indian street, and took a direction to the river, laying in ashes a cotton compressing machine, and a house in which there was a large quantity of cotton, the inclined plane built belonging to Captain Hanson, and the buildings contiguous, together with two of the largest cotton warehouses in the city, and a number of other buildings, containing, as has been estimated, 80 or 9000 bales of cotton and 12000 bales of wool. A sloop lying at anchor at Hibernia's wharf was partially injured.

The wind subsequently changed to S. W. by W. which checked the progress of the flames towards a more compact portion of the city, and their ravages were finally checked at the house occupied by Mrs. Simpson, belonging to W. G. Simpson, Esq. in the rear of J. H. Morel's Tabby building, West Broad street. The number of houses consumed is estimated at from 100 to 150, and had the wind been from the N. W. blowing with the violence it did, the extent of damage that might have been sustained is beyond calculation.

The Editor of the Augusta Chronicle states that he lost every thing but the materials of his office. Among the incidents which occurred, the following is mentioned. "An infant of but two weeks old was laid on a bed, something being lightly thrown over it, when a stranger gathering up the bed, threw it and the child together out of the second story. But its half-distracted mother on running down to its relief, found the little innocent unharmed."

FROM HAVANA.—The brig Dromo, Capt. Morgan, arrived at New-York, States that the Spanish armed schooner Habana, arrived there on the 3d inst. with her prize, a piratical schooner, which she captured, (as before stated) off the Colorado. The crew, 50 in number, were landed on the shore, where they were pursued and five of them captured. One of these men was said to belong to the French brig Audace, whose crew were murdered, his life being saved on condition of joining them. He stated to the authorities on examination, that during the

which the Habana had captured ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY SOULS. The Captain of the Habana reported that he had seen the wreck of five vessels inside the Colorado Reef, which were supposed to have been destroyed by pirates. The vessels appeared to be in the latest stage of decay.

The following lines written in Spanish, were found on the table of the pirate schooner. "This is a brave corsair, which cruises hereabouts, the eternal persecutor of the infamous ENGLISH. They are thwarted in every thing although very vigilant. They pursue every trade, the slaves with diligence, and with still greater interest the poor pirate."

Resolution relative to the Eastern Termination of the Columbia and Philadelphia Rail Road.

Be it Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That the canal commissioners be, and they are hereby authorized, to make or cause to be made a re-examination and survey of the line of the Pennsylvania rail road, commencing at the foot of the contemplated inclined plane near the farm of the late Judge Peters and terminating at the Broad and Vine streets, at the city of Philadelphia; and also to cause examinations to be made from the said inclined plane to such other point on the line of the city, and also to such point on the tide waters of the Schuylkill, at the head of the sloop navigation, as they may deem expedient, and also to make an estimate of the cost of such construction, and to ascertain the amount of damages to private property, as far as practicable, on the respective routes and such other routes as they may deem expedient to survey; and make report to the next legislature, and also whether, in their opinion, it will be the interest of the state to make more than one line of rail road from said Peters' farm, and if so, which, and in the mean time not to contract for the construction of any rail road, east of the contemplated inclined plane beyond Judge Peters' farm.
